REGARDING THE CAUSE OF THE C., B. & Q. TROUBLE.

A Meeting of the Grievance Committees of Various Raiiroads Called-Probabilities of a General Strlke-What the Outcome Would be-Other Labor News.

CHICAGO, March 5 .- Mr. Arthur said to a press representative last night:

"it will not do to assume that the employes of the railroad company are responsible to the public for the present condition of affairs of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway. They, the employes, have a legal and moral right to place a value on their iabor, and if the company cannot or will not pay it the employes are perfectly justified in refusing to work.

"No one with the least conception of justice will deny this proposition. There is no pretense that the strikers have used any means except moral sussion to prevent those who desire to work for the Burlington from following their inclination.

"Shali the Chicago, Burington & Quiney railroad pay the same wages for the same work that is paid by the Chicago & Alton, the Chicago & Northwestern, the Milwaukee & St. Paui, and 90 per cent. in mileage of all the railways in the United States? This is the main question, and, in fact, almost the only question, at issue between the parties to the controversy. For instance, the Burlington people pay for pulling one of their trains from Chicago to Streator and return, a distance of 120 miles, for engineers of the third grade, $2.55; second grade, $3.10; first grade, $3.65. The Chicago & Alton and other roads pay for the same service all engineers alike, $4.20, or 35 per cent.

more than the Burlington. "A fireman on the Chicago & Alton and other roads gets about the same pay as an engineer of the third grade on the Chicago, Burlingtou & Quincy. Is there any justice in this?

"Under the grading system a man serves from three to five years as a fireman, when he is supposed to be an apprentice learning the rudiments of engineering. He then takes his place as a hostler and runs the engine from the ground, in which capacity he may serve for a year or more before he gets a switching engine for another year or two, when he may get on the road. By this time he has served an apprenticeship of from five to nine years, and still the company expects him to serve three years longer before he gets full pay. "There is no other trade in existence that is asked or would submit to the injustice of becoming a candidate for the superanuated list before becoming a full fledged master of his trade,

"In the present controversy the engineers and firemen can afford to lose the fight, hut there is no possible way in which they can recede from the demands on the question of wages except at the sacrifice of their organi-

A Meeting Called.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Chief Arthur has sent the following telegram to each chairman of the general grievance committees of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen on the following lines of railroads: Chicago & Alton, Chicago & Northwestern, Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, Wabash railroad, Wabash & Western Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Wisconsin Central:

At GUILFOYLE'S New Restaurant and Boarding-House, on Market street, opposite Central Hotel. Everything is new, rent and Clean. Single Meals 25 cents. Fine Clears and blances at the Bar. headquarters. There are many important matters to consider in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy strike, and your immediate presence is imperative. Be prepared to convene your committee from here at a moment's notice. Fraternaily, "P. M. ARTHUR, G. C. E.

"F. P. SARGENT, G. M." This looks as if a general strike will be dcriared on all western roads. A reporter called upon the managers the various railroads to learn what course they would pursue in case of a general strike. The officials were almost unanimous in saying that if the strike is extended to other roads than the Burlington. they will have no other alternative than to shut up shop and discharge all hands.

Kilied by a Deputy Sheriff.

CHICAGO, March 5.—Burlington officials received a dispatch at noon from Brookfield. Mo., on the line of the Hannibal & St Joe. stating that George Watts, one of the oldest engineers in the employ of the company, was shot dead by a deputy sheriff. It appears he entered the depot and endeavored to intimidate some of the new men on the iocomotives,

He was ordered off the premises by the deputy sheriff, but refused to go, and made a significant movement toward his coat pocket. The officer then fired, killing him instantiy. In the pocket of the coat was found a bulldog revolver of the largest calibre. THE RECORD OF FIRES.

Milwaukee Has a Fire Pyrotechnical Dis play-Other Fires.

MILWAUKEE, March 5.—Shortly after midnight Friday night, the double five-story brick building occupied by J. Fernekes & Brother, 351 and 353 East Water street, was discovered to be on fire. The fire department arrived in a few minutes, but the structure was a mass of flames before they got to work. Goldsmith & Company's carpet house which adjoins Fernekes' candy factory, soon caught fire and was soon wrapped in flames. Before 3:30 o'clock, the floors of the Fernekes' building collapsed with a thundering crash.

The stock of fireworks kept in the establishment became ignited and above the roar of the flames could be heard the sharp detonation of giant firecrackers and bunches of smaller ones as they exploded; the hissing sound of skyrockets as they shot up in miscellaneous and confusing fashion, hreaking high over head.

The fire next took hold of the mattress and feather establishment of A. W. Weigell adjoining the Goldsmith building on the north. The building was soon in ruins. Loss will reach $200,000.

Town Hall Burned.

PORT DEPOSIT, Md., March 5.—A fire destroyed the town hall here, causing a loss of $25,000. The building was owned by Hon. Jacob Tome, whose loss is $12,000; insurance, $10,000. MR. RANDALL'S SCHEME

Of Reducing Revenues Without Destroying Industries.

WASHINGTON, March 5 .- Mr. Randall says that his tariff hill will be ready for presentation on Tuesday. It will include internal taxes. He will propose that the tobacco tax and the tax on fruit spirits be aholished and the whisky tax reduced to fifty cents a

This would make a reduction of $65,000,-000, which is a far greater one than the Mills bill can hope to accomplish. The tariff revision proposed by Mr. Randall would cause a further reduction of about $20,000,000, thus making an aggregate reduction of $80,-000,000 annually, based on the receipts of last year. When the two bills are thoroughly understood, the issue will plainly be whether the revenue is to be reduced as Mr. Randall In the west the supply increases while the proposes, or by striking down a number of important iudustries, as Mr. Mills proposes.

A Strange Malady. CARROLLTON, Ky., March 5 .- A very remarkable case is engaging the attention of the physicians here. The person affected is Joseph Woods, a fishermen of this place. The peculiarity of the malady is that the patient is covered with scales like those of a fish. In some places they are two or three deep, and they range in size from a twentyfive cent piece to a silver dollar, the sufferer having an exceedingly uncanny and disagreeable aspect. The scale forming has been going on for several weeks, and the body is now entirely covered. As the disease progressed it gave rise to a suspicion in the minds of many of his neighbors that it was a case of genuine leprosy, and no little ex citement has been occasioned. The physicians give assurance that all fears are groundless, and say that it is a very unusual form of eczema, though it is a more serious case than ever before came within their experience, if they ever had such a case at all.

A Remarkable County.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 5,-Ren. dolph county, in West Virginia, is a remarkable county in more than one feature. Its area is nearly as great as that of Rhode Island. It has the highest mountain in the state-Mount Bayard. The Wilson vein of coal is the thickest in the world. The Scott family, on Roaving creek, wili outweigh any other family in the United States. Winchester park, in Randolph county, is the largest hunting preserve between the Rocky mountains and the Atlantic ocean.

ACCORDING TO DUN & CO.

ACTUAL BUSINESS IS SATISFACTORY FOR THE SEASON.

Prospects Confused and Uncertain-In Some Branches the Outlook is Promising and in Others, Dark Clouds Appear on the Horizon of Business.

NEW YORK, March 5.-R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Actual business is satisfactory for the season. Prospects are confused and uncertain, in some directions promising, but in other branches of large importance decidedly cloudy. The passage by the house of the bill authorizing bond purchases was designed to remove the monetary uncertainty, an influence which affects all trade and industry. Whether the senate will pass the bill in its present form is not yet certain. Lower prices immediately followed, however, and the decline in the stock market for the week has been about 1 per share.

The western railroad wars and strikes continue to disturb business. Because of cuts by Canadian lines, the eastern trunk roads announce a reduction of 10 per cent, on east and westbound rates, March 5, and efforts to settle the western war were defeated on Thursday by the St. Paul. Only partial revival of traffic on the Burlington road has been attained. While earnings of railroads continue to show that a large quantity of freight for the season is in motion, the rates are dropping and expenses on many lines increasing. The Pennsylvania advances wages on western lines 10 per cent.

An important case of uncertainty in many branches of trade is the movement to change the tariff. Whether the proposed changes are desirable or not, those who think them probable are for that reason moved to defer business operations. The bill submitted on Thursday would affect so many industries and branches of trade that individual opinions, favorable or unfavorable to it, must considerably influence transactions while it remains pending. It comes at a time when, for other reasons, there is hesitation in most of the branches chiefly concerned, and increases that hesitation. It is a characteristic of many trades at present that purchases and operations are, for one person or another, limited to present necessities.

In the boot and shoe trade, which is otherwise exceptionally satisfactory, there are some such indications as to women's and children's goods. In the cottons the recent signs of halting may be attributed to unusually large dealings in the past; in the sugar and numerous other trades the operations of trusts or combinations cause uncertainty. The prices of wool are steady, with Ohio double extra at thirty-two cents, and buyers have been operating with some works resolve to close unless better rail rates enable them to meet southern competition.

orders halt. No unfavorable indications appear in reports of trade or of collections in any part of the country. Money is every where comparatively easy, though at Boston and other important points it is feit that a revival of busness activity would soon be followed by some pressure. Southern trade is clearly improving, and there are signs of renewed real estate activity at some western points. The treasury had returned by banks $1,400,000 of its deposits during the week, and in ali took in $4,900,000 more cash than it paid out. For the month of February the debt reduction was $7,756,000, almost entirely through increase in cash on hand, though $5,000,000 was paid for surrendered bank notes, and the bank circulation diminished $3,125,809. The volume of trade represented by payments through clearing houses is about 2 i-2 per cent larger than last year outside of New York, but with noticeable iosses at Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati and

Kansas City. Business failures during the last week numbered 244, as compared with 329 for the corresponding week of last year. A GHOST'S WORK.

It Causes a Reiglous Revival in an Alabama Jail.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 5.- There is a religious revival among the prisoners confined in jail here which owes its existence to the superstition of the converts. The jail is filled with criminals of the worst class brought here by the wonderful stories which have gone out concerning the place. On the 22d of last December, George Williams, who had murdered a fellow convict, was executed in the jail yard and the gallows, with the rope hanging in the air, was left standing for future use. The prisoners, 150 in number, crowded to their cell gratings to witness the final plunge of their friend George.

A few nights later two or three inmates happened to be looking out at the midnight moon were horrified to see George again ascend the scaffold, adjust the rope to his neck and fall through the trap with realistic effect. The prisoners told the story as soon as they recovered from their freight, and the next night others witnessed the repetition of the dreadful spectacle. Since that time the ghost has been a nightly visitor to the terror of the inmates who have gone to psaim singing and praying. The jail officials are not very anxious to disabuse the minds of the believers in the ghost, as it has the effect of making them more peaceful.

The Siavery Question in Brazil. New YORK, March 5 .- A Rio Janeiro correspondent writes under date of February 3, and says: "The absorbing question of the day continues to be that of slavery, and it is current that the ministry, recognizing that their announced non-possumus policy has been rendered impracticable by the extraordinary progress of voluntary concessions of freedom by the planters of San Paulo, who have decided upon introducing early in the next legislative session—that is in May-a bill to abolish slavery throughout Brazil.

BASE BALL NEWS.

Schedule for the Western League Clubs as Adopted in New York.

NEW YORK, March &.—After wranging over a championship schedule at the Fifth Avenue hotel till 3 o'clock in the morning, the base ball magnates of the National League finally broke the deadlock and succeeded in drafting a schedule satisfactory to ali but the New York club. The committee which drafted the schedule was composed of managers Harry Wright, of the Philadelphia club, Horace Phillips, of the Pittsburg club and Watkins, of the Detroit club. Phillips and Walkers looked after the western end of the schedule, and left Wright to divide up the eastern dates. He gave his club the opening day in New York, opening day in Boston, Decoration Day with the Detroit club, Fourth of July at Chicago, and Labor Day both in New York and Philadelphia. President Day wanted the opening day in Boston, but the Philadelphia people would not yield, and it was finally left to the five disinterested clubs, who, after working for two hours, decided to make no change in the schedule.

THE DREADED DISEASE.

A Whoie Family Near Sidney, Ohio, Afflicted With Trichina.

SIDNEY, O., March 5.-A family named Taylor, consisting of seven persons, living seven miles west of here, are all sick from the effects of trichina, found in raw and rarecooked ham. The family is by no means of the kind that eats raw meat, and the manner of their acquiring the disease, if it may be so called, will serve as a pointer to others, They had a fine lot of smoked hain, and one of the girls, in slicing it for meals, had the habit of tasting the small raw pieces which fell from the knife.

Others of the family soon took up the habit, and, without knowing it, a considerable quantity of nicely smoked raw ham was daily disposed of. They all preferred it rare done when frying, and in that way they got weii loaded with trichina. At all events, the entire family was taken down. The meat was examined under a microscope, and was found to be full of trichina. The meat was from healthy hogs, and had been cared for as well as possible.

Carlisle on the Mills Tariff Bill.

The tariff is the political problem of the day, and it will be the main question at issue in the next Presidential campaign. The two great parties have deelared that a reform and a revision is needed. The Democrats demand it in the interest of the people of the country, and empted from liability except where the the Republicans say that the present system is piling up too much money in the by ordinary care. treasury, and admit that something should be done to prevent the increase of the surplus, to lessen the revenues of ployer of a contractor to hold a percentthe Government. But when it comes to age of the money due the latter for thirty a plan of correcting the present abuses days after the completion of the building, the two parties are widely at issue. provided, however, the sub-contractors or Democrats demand that the taxes should he taken off the necessaries of life first; the Republicans say abolish the internal revenue. The Democrats demand cheap food and cheap clothing for the people; the Republicans say give them cheap whisky and cheap tobaceo. Which will the people take?

In furtherance of what they believe should be done with this great question office. the Democrats have prepared and introduced in Congress the Mills Tariff bill. This bill will, it is believed, effect a reduction of about $55,000,000 in the present revenues of the Government, and is a conservative measure, in as much as wealth's Attorney of Jefferson County. the Republicans think the reduction This bill, it was stated, was the one should amount to about $80,000,000. Of course, Republicans are not in favor of this bill. They know full well that their only hope of success in the next campaign is to prevent the Democrats from passing any tariff bill. They will fight the Mills bill or any other measure prepared by Democrats. But that is expected.

Speaker Carlisle has been interviewed on this bill by an Enquirer correspondent. His views of the bill are given in the following:

"It is a very conservative measure, and and industrial situation; would have justified a much more radical measure in some respects, but there are always so many differouces of opinion about details 'and so much appreliension about the effects of proposed changes in the rates of duty that it is impossible to do exactly what ought to be doue." "You think, then, the measure is a fair care, and I know that it has been the purpose of its framers to deal fairly and liberally with any interest affected by it. There has been no feeling of hostility to the capital or labor employed in manufacturing industries, and the bill if passed, will not hurt them."

"In what way will it heip capital and iabor?"

"Wool, flax, hemp, jute, dye-stnffs and many other raw materials are placed upon the free list, and this will largely reduce the cost of production without reducing the wages of labor. The consumer will thus be enabled to get cheaper goods while the manufacturer will realize ample profits, and the laborer will continue to receive the same or higher wages."

"What will be done with the bill by Congress?" "I think the bill will pass substantially as reported." "What if it be deleated?"

"The Democratic party will then appeal to the people on this question at the next election, and a Congress will be chosen that will reduce line revenue much more than is now proposed."

A KENTUCKIAN in Kansas wrote back to the editor of his old county paper, saying: "Offer a prize for the biggest fool in the country, and I will try and get there in time to chim it."

LAW-MAKERS AT FRANKFORT.

Items of Interest Gleaned From the Proceedings of the Legislature-Notes.

The bill to charter the Cottageville and Rectorville Turnpike Road Campany has been passed.

Representative Newman, of Compbell County, has reported a bill fixing the liability of railroads to the owners of stock killed and injured. It provides that the roads shall pay full value unless the owners contribute to the killing or injury. If, however, the railroads fence their tracks four and one-half feet high, and shall keep same in good repair with good cattle guards at crossings, they are exkilling or injury could have been avoided

A bill that has caused considerable discussion is one which requires the emworkmen give notice within thirty days before completion. This bill was eopied from the Ohio law and is for the protection of the workmen. It is now pending in the House.

Prosperity of New York Maguzinia.

The rivalry between the magazines of New York is very great at present. Their market is the whole country. Their revenues increase with the growth of intelligence. As their success depends on the quality and attractiveness of their contents, there is intellectual as well as business rivalry, and the extent to which this is carried may be seen in the flamboyant promises of the advertisements which they are issuing at this season of the year. Famous names are heralded abroad by the publishers and moving or taking themes or fascinating romances or charming illustrations are put in competition with others of the kind until one is almost bewildered by the spectacle. All this furnishes opportunity for competent writers in every field of letters, and it is certain that never before were the openings so great for such writers in our country. Young literary aspirants are always assuring each other that there is no chance for genius nowadays, but they can learn in the office of every magazine that the competition to secure "genius" is actively pursued the year round.

The influence of the New York magazines upon the literary and artistic culture of the country is very great, and it is a matter of pride that the character of all of them makes them worthy of their fortunes.—John Swinton in Philadelphia Press.

ENGLAND CONSTANTLY NIBBLING VENEZUELAN TERRITORY.

British Press Comments—They Ridicule Our Navy, and Say We Dare Not Interfere-The Pope's Coronation Anniversary-Bulgarian Notes-European News.

LONDON, March 5.—The repeated protests steady encroachments made on its frontier; by the queen's subjects from British Guiana, although couched in the most respectful, not to say humble, terms, appear to have only circular saw at Huntington, Ind. the effect of irritating those Huglish journals and people who can be induced to notice the subject at all.

For years there has been a constant nibbling at the Venezuela border, and portion after portion of territory has been annexed in the most matter of course manner. There is even a sort of feeling, understood at least, if not expressed, that very likely the inhabitants of the territory absorbed, are thankful to be taken under the shield of English protection, thereby exchanging their status and subjects of a weak and semi-barbarous power for the inestimable privilege of British citizenship, and acquiring the protection of a powerful and civilized nation of mod-

If the stories of the richness of the gold fields on the debatable lands should prove to be correct they can certainly be better developed by British enterprise and capital than hy the primitive methods of the Venezuelan. As for the right of the matter, it is known to every one that the defining lines have always been uncertainly traced, and in matters of doubt the English government must protect its interests. The foregoing is the complacent view entertained here, and the proposition of arbetrament is considered as derogatory to the dignity of a nation so assured of the justice of its position.

The press comments on the subject indicate that not only would arbitration in the present case be objectionable on principle, but any suggestion looking to the selection of the United States as the adjudicating power would be flatly rejected. Either justly or unjustly, it is considered that a room. nation which has promulgated the Monroe | doctrine could not view the delicate point of difference impartially, and a mixed commission would prevent almost equally un-superior difficulties. The future policy of England towards Venezuela may be imagined from her past course. The latter country dare not provoke hostilities, and "What," asks the press "could the United States do in her behalf, even if she were willing to muddle in any quarrel so remote from her soil? England, of course, would not break off her friendly relations with the great republic for any slight cause, but a nation that has no navy must not make itself ridiculous by hallowbluster, and what retaliatory measures could the United States devise in case her protests were unheeded?"

England Don't Want Him.

LONDON, March 5.—In an interview with Baron De Staal, of Russia, Lord Salisbury, of England, said he would not consent to Ferdinand's deposition until his successor has been determined, and that the Prince of Mingrelia would not be acceptable to England.

The Prince of Mingrelia's family name is Dadian, and the unimportant Georgian principality called Mingrelia, hordering on Circasian and the Black sea, was sold under pressure by Prince David Dadian, father of ucela's candidate for the Bulgarian throu to the czar for about $750,000. The present Prince Nicholas is a cultured young gentle, man, a colonel in the Russian army, and an aid-de-camp to the czar. He is married to Marie, daughter of the Russiau general and minister, Count Adelhurg.

The dispatch would imply that the czar is again offering his henchman as a candidate for the Bulgarian throne.

The Pope Laments His Position.

Rome, March 5 .- Yesterday was observed as the anniversary of the coronation of the pope. His holiness received the congratulation of the sacred college, Cardinal Sacconi, the dean of the college, delivering an address. The pope replied in an animated speech. He lamented more than ever his position, which, he 'said, was unbearable. The Catholic world must be aware of the situation. No arrangement with the government was possible until the independence of the papacy was restored.

Russla Grows More Emphatic.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 5.—The Russian government has sent the porte a second and paore decided note, requesting them to intimate that Prince Ferdinand's position in Bulgaria is illegal. It is reported that Germany supports Russia's action in the matter.

The Moscow Gazette, the government or-gan, says that Turkey will declare Prince Ferdinand an usurper in Bulgaria, and will interfere with a military force to establish a status there in accordance with the Berlin treaty, either on receiving a mandate from all the powers or carte blanche from Russia.

The Status of the Crown Prince.

LONDON, March 5.—The cessation of the daily bulletins, and the strict prohibition of all autheutic information regarding the condition of the crown prince has caused intense excitement in Berlin, and no little indiguatlon.

The crown prince looks many years older than when he left Berlin. His beard Is white, and he has become very thin. His handwriting, however, is as firm and clear as ever. He has written his will, and a political testament for his son, Prince William.

King John in Council.

Rome, March 5 .- Gen. San Marzano, commander of the Italian forces, telegraphs from Massowah that King John, of Ahyssinia, has arrived at Asmara, where he will hold a council with the chiefs and decide upon his future course.

~ * YBERSBURG, Pa., March 5.-Plans nave been projected for an interstate revival, assembly and faith cure meeting to be held at Williams' grove, to continue all the month of June. The projectors propose to have a reunion of evangelists, faith cure workers and believers of all denominations from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Ohio and other states where the faith cure has obtained a foothold, and to hold daily meetings in the great hall there, under the auspices of Mrs. Woodworth and other prominent people. It is also proposed to try to work the faith ours in public and to ask physicians and disbelievers to be present in order to make public and practical test of
